

Dr. Joseph L. White

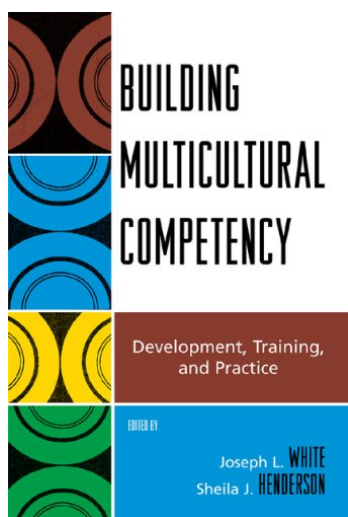

Visiting Professor from UC Irvine
African American Professor Emeritus of Psychology, Psychiatry, and Comparative Culture

The Alliance of Graduate Students for Diversity presents A Series of Talks by Dr. Joseph White

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

“The Browning of America: Implications for Diversity in Higher Education”

November 2nd @ 6 PM Many Nations Longhouse University of Oregon

Dr. White's solid academic standing, combined with his impassioned activism, have made him a potent force of social change. His dedication to multiculturalism and social advocacy is exceptionally remarkable and can be instrumental in enriching the extant knowledge, awareness, and skills of UO faculty, staff, and students. He is widely known as a “Mentoring Giant” and nationally recognized for his dedication to mentoring students of color.

Tues 11/3, 11-2,
EMU Walnut Room

Faculty Workshop: “Ideas for Mentoring People of Color and Women: Enhancing Communication Across Cultural, Ethnic, and Gendered Boundaries”
RSVP Required - email Jennifer Burton at jenb@uoregon.edu

Tues, 11/3, 6-8,
Knight Browsing
Room

“Community and Social Justice: Enhancing Communication Across Cultural, Ethnic, and Racial Boundaries”

Wed 11/4, 12-2,
Mills International
Center, EMU

“Future Educators: Effective Teaching and Mentoring Skills for GTFs and Graduate Students”

Wed 11/4, 6-8,
Gerlinger Lounge

“Surviving & Thriving: Major Psychological Strengths in the African American Way of Being”

Thurs 11/5, 2-4,
Mills International
Center, EMU

“Enhancing Mentoring Relationships with People of Color and Women: Implementation and Barriers”

*food will be provided

Dr. Joseph White's visit is proudly sponsored by the Alliance of Graduate Students for Diversity, Student Affairs, Center on Diversity and Community, Office of Institutional Equity & Diversity, Academic Affairs, Counseling Psychology Program, College of Education, and Ethnic Diversity Affairs Committee

For Questions & Accommodations Contact Cynthia@uoalliance.com

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC